ABOUT LUNÁTICO

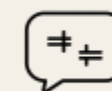

A different way to discover Cartagena through its cuisine.

Lunático creates boutique culinary experiences that connect travelers with the culture, history, and traditions of Cartagena through food.

From our space in Getsemaní, we combine hands-on participation, local ingredients, and cultural storytelling in a warm, welcoming, and personal atmosphere.

COLOMBIAN COOKING CLASS

A hands-on 3-hour experience to discover Colombian and Caribbean cuisine through its ingredients, techniques, and traditions.

Participants cook alongside our chefs and prepare a traditional menu using local ingredients while learning about the stories and customs that are part of Cartagena's culinary culture.

Depending on the schedule, guests prepare a three-course menu featuring either red snapper or posta cartagenera, Cartagena-style slow-cooked beef, as the main course. The experience concludes with everyone gathering around the table to enjoy the meal in Lunático's warm and intimate atmosphere.

BAZURTO MARKET AND COOKING CLASS

An experience that connects Cartagena's most authentic market with a hands-on Colombian cooking class.

The experience begins with a guided visit to Bazurto Market, where participants discover ingredients, local products, and the everyday life of one of Cartagena's most representative spaces.

Afterwards, they return to Lunático to cook alongside our chefs and transform the flavors they discovered into a hands-on Colombian cooking experience.
